Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Work of the Invalided Soldiers Commission, Canada: May 1918 Sir, - The information given in the following report, while it presents a summary of the work accomplished during the past year, does not fully represent the present activities of the organization. For a considerable period there was a lack of co-ordination between the medical branch of the Department of Militia and Defence and the Commission. In order to define exactly the relative positions of the two organizations, an Order in Council was passed in November last giving to the Army Medical Corps the medical work in the hospitals and institutions of the Commission. It was found that this arrangement was unworkable, as neither the Commission nor the Militia Department had control of the patients or of the institutions. Consequently, after numerous conferences, a definite line of cleavage has been reached, and by an Order in Council, P. C. 433, 21st February, 1918 (Appendix I to this Report) certain institutions equipped and operated by the Commission passed under the control of the Department of Militia and Defence. The Order in Council provides that all officers and soldiers who have not been discharged from the military forces of Canada shall remain under the jurisdiction and control of the Department of Militia and Defence, but that upon discharge they shall pass, if necessary, to the control of the Commission; that all officers or soldiers who continue to require medical treatment on account of their suffering from tuberculosis, epilepsy, paralysis or other diseases likely to be of long duration or incurable, or on account of their being mentally deficient or insane, are to be under the...
